Know Your Rights screening at York Woods Library

An educational mocumentary explaining the rights of citizens when stopped by police will play Friday, May 21 at York Woods Library, 1785 Finch Ave. at 7 p.m.

The video, titled Know Your Rights, was created by videographer and jane-finch.com founder Paul Nguyen.

Nguyen said many scenarios in the video are based on real case files, word for word, with a voice-over informing the viewer what to do in that particular situation.

"I wanted to learn what to do, too," he said. "It's an educational video. I want to help people not make the situation worse than it already is."
